

STATE PLANNING ORGANIZATION

GENERAL DIRECTORATE FOR EUROPEAN UNION AFFAIRS

ACCESSION PARTNERSHIP WITH TURKEY

(Final Version Adopted by the Council of the EU on 14 April 2003)

ANKARA
APRIL 2003

Introduction

In the Strategy Paper 'Towards the Enlarged Union', of 9 October 2002, the Commission recommended that "the European Union should enhance its support for Turkey's pre-accession preparations, in view of the next stage of its candidature". It also set out a number of more detailed recommendations to meet this objective, including the revision of the Accession Partnership for Turkey and an increase in financial assistance.

The decision of the Helsinki European Council in 1999 to recognise Turkey as a candidate for accession encouraged it to adopt a series of far reaching constitutional and legislative reforms. The European Councils of Laeken in 2001, Seville, Brussels and Copenhagen in 2002 recognised the progress made by Turkey towards complying with the political criteria. The Copenhagen European Council further concluded that if the European Council in December 2004, on the basis of a report and a recommendation from the Commission, decides that Turkey fulfils the Copenhagen political criteria, the European Union will open accession negotiations with Turkey without delay. It also endorsed the Commission's approach and announced that the "accession strategy for Turkey shall be strengthened". As part of this process, it invited the Commission to submit a proposal for a revised Accession Partnership and announced a significant increase in pre-accession financial assistance for Turkey.

This Communication presents the Commission's follow-up to the recommendations of the Strategy Paper and the Copenhagen conclusions.

Revised Accession Partnership

The Commission's proposal for a Council decision on a revised Accession Partnership for Turkey is annexed to this Communication. The Accession Partnership sets out in a single framework the priority areas for further work identified in the Commission's 2002 Regular Report on the progress made by Turkey towards accession, the financial means available to help Turkey implement these priorities and the conditions which will apply to that assistance. The Copenhagen European Council recognised that through recent legislative packages a large number of priorities specified in the 2001 Accession Partnership have been addressed. As compared to the Accession Partnership for Turkey adopted by Council in 2001, the Commission's proposal takes full account of developments during the past two years and focuses clearly on areas where priority action is still needed. It is expected that on the basis of this revised Accession Partnership Turkey will draw up a revised national programme for the adoption of the acquis, and adopt, implement and enforce the necessary measures.

Financial assistance

Until 2002 Turkey had received support under the MEDA programme and through two regulations to support the customs union and economic and social development. For the period to 1999 the key aim of assistance to Turkey had been to accompany the process of structural reform, as for other Mediterranean partners.

Following the Helsinki European Council, a pre-accession orientation was introduced to the financial assistance programmes with Turkey. Assistance continued to be available for structural adjustment, in co-ordination with the international financial institutions, but assistance also began to focus on institution building, investment, and supporting the participation of Turkey in Community programmes and agencies. The Council adopted on 17 December 2001 a regulation concerning pre-accession financial assistance for Turkey. The regulation reiterated the Commission's objective to establish pre-accession financial assistance, on average, at an annual level of €177 million.

In its Strategy Paper of 2002, the Commission envisaged that total assistance should be substantially increased, taking into account Turkey's needs and absorptive capacity. The Copenhagen conclusions confirmed that from 2004 this assistance would be financed under the "pre-accession expenditure" heading of the 2000-2006 financial perspectives. The Commission has adopted on 12 February 2003 a proposal to this effect in COM(2003)70 of 11.02.2003 and transmitted it to the Budget Authority.

During the period 2004-2006 pre-accession financial assistance will focus on supporting Turkey's efforts to meet the Copenhagen criteria, and in particular to strengthening institutional capacity and investment related to the adoption of the acquis. Assistance will also be available for improving the functioning of Turkey's economy and its capacity to cope with competitive pressure within the internal market. Cross-border co-operation with EU Member States and candidate countries will also be promoted.

As for all candidate countries, assistance will fall under two main headings: institution building and investment. Institution building will take the form of assistance to help Turkey to implement the acquis and to prepare for participation in EU policies such as economic and social cohesion. In this area support may be made available to public authorities at central, regional and local level. Institution building support will mainly be deployed and implemented with Member States through the instrument of twinning. Assistance will also be given to support organisations which will have an important role in helping prepare for accession and implement the acquis (e.g. organisations involved in the social dialogue such as employers' federations, and trades unions, as well as professional organisations such as chambers of commerce and agriculture, and other representative bodies). Non-governmental organisations could also benefit from assistance with a view to supporting initiatives aimed at the consolidation and further development of democratic practices, the rule of law, human rights, equality for women and men and the protection of minorities.

Investment will take two forms. First, there may be investment to establish or to strengthen the regulatory infrastructure needed to ensure compliance with the acquis and direct, acquis-related investments. Investment in the regulatory infrastructure will only be made on the basis of a clear-cut government strategy supported as necessary by institution building. Second, part of the assistance programme will be directed towards investment in economic and social cohesion, taking into account the importance of regional disparities between Turkish regions as well as the gap between Turkey's national income and the EU average.

The revised Accession Partnership will provide the basis for programming pre-accession assistance; priorities for assistance will also be drawn from the Regular Reports and Turkey's national programme for the adoption of the acquis. In these reports, special attention will be drawn to the political criteria. A number of priority areas can already be identified, such as justice and home affairs including migration, maritime safety, the environment, health, agriculture and rural development. A significant increase in funding will also allow the EU to support socio-economic development in Turkey, as it relates to the goals of the accession strategy. The existing instrument providing pre-accession financial assistance for Turkey¹ can support programmes in all these areas, including investment in transport and environmental infrastructure and in rural development programmes.

Turkey needs to further improve its capacity to manage and use these funds effectively. In order to facilitate the full devolution of implementation, Turkey will need to take further measures to ensure sound financial control. It is therefore expected that the Decentralised Implementation System will be operational from 1 June 2003.

The Commission considers that it would be useful at this stage to indicate the level of financial assistance for Turkey over the next three years. This will facilitate multi-annual planning in areas where it will take more than one year to address the objectives. The amounts concerned, which will need to be approved through the annual budgetary procedure, are set out in the following table:

	2004	2005	2006	Total
Pre-accession financial assistance for Turkey
€ million, current prices	250	300	500	1050

Enhancing co-operation in other areas

The Commission's 2002 Strategy Paper presented recommendations in a number of other areas for enhancing support for Turkey's pre-accession preparations. The Commission's actions and plans in these areas are summarised below:

- The enhanced political dialogue between the EU and Turkey covers political reforms, human rights, the Cyprus issue and the matter of the peaceful settlement of border disputes. It currently takes place in a wide range of meetings, both under the Association Agreement, the Helsinki European Council Conclusions, and covering Turkey's role as an ESDP partner. This offers a flexible framework which can be further intensified on any CFSP issue as required. As from 2003 the Commission is supplementing this dialogue with regular and detailed discussions with the Turkish authorities on the reforms and the progress in meeting the Copenhagen political criteria, with particular emphasis on effective implementation.
- The enhanced economic dialogue between the EU and Turkey covering issues of macroeconomic performance and stability and economic reforms is being pursued intensively.
- The process of legislative scrutiny, carried out in the framework of the sub-committees of the Association Agreement, is being supplemented by enhanced programmes of TAIEX seminars and technical meetings or workshops on specific subjects.
- Efforts are continuing to reinforce and extend the scope of the customs union to cover services and public procurement. Further efforts are being made to remove obstacles to the free circulation of goods and strengthen co-operation in other areas related to the customs union.
- The deepening of trade relations with Turkey, both on a bilateral basis and in relations with third countries, is being pursued. In negotiating trade agreements with third countries, the EU is stepping up efforts to ensure that such countries agree similar arrangements with Turkey. The dialogue between the EU and Turkey on trade issues is being enhanced.

- In the area of justice and home affairs, the Commission is assisting Turkey in drawing up strategies and action plans on border management, and asylum and migration, in order to comply with the acquis. Co-operation will also include the fight against corruption. As from 2003 Turkey is eligible to participate in AGIS, the framework programme to help police, the judiciary and professionals from member states and candidate countries to co-operate in criminal matters and in the fight against crime.
- In the area of maritime safety, technical assistance to Turkey is being strengthened, and this will be a priority sector for enhancing co-operation.
- In the course of 2003 Turkey will start to participate in the following Community programmes: Enterprise and Entrepreneurship, Gender Equality, Combating Discrimination, Combating Social Exclusion, Public Health, Incentive Measures in the field of Employment, the Sixth Framework Programme on Research. The preparatory measures necessary for full participation in the Socrates, Leonardo da Vinci and Youth Programmes in 2004 will be implemented by Turkey with the technical and financial assistance of the Commission. In January 2003 Turkey became a member of the European Environment Agency. Participation in other programmes is being prepared.

COUNCIL DECISION

on the principles, priorities, intermediate objectives and conditions contained in the Accession Partnership with Turkey

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Community,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EC) No 390/2001 of 26 February 2001 on assistance to Turkey in the framework of the pre-accession strategy, and in particular on the establishment of Accession Partnerships,² and in particular to Article 2 thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission,

Whereas:

- (1) The Copenhagen European Council of Copenhagen "recalled its decision in 1999 in Helsinki that Turkey is a candidate state destined to join the Union on the basis of the same criteria as applied to the other candidate states. It strongly welcomes the important steps taken by Turkey towards meeting the Copenhagen criteria, in particular through the recent legislative packages and the subsequent legislative measures which cover a large number of key priorities specified in the Accession Partnership".
- (2) The Copenhagen Council decided that "in order to assist Turkey towards EU membership, the accession strategy for Turkey shall be strengthened. The Commission is invited to submit a proposal for a revised Accession Partnership".
- (3) Regulation (EC) No 390/2001 provides that the Council is to decide, by a qualified majority and following a proposal from the Commission, on the principles, priorities, intermediate objectives and conditions contained in the individual Accession Partnership, as it will be submitted to Turkey, as well as on subsequent significant adjustments applicable to it.
- (4) Community assistance is conditional on the fulfilment of essential elements, and in particular on progress towards fulfilment of the Copenhagen criteria. Where an essential element is lacking, the Council, acting by a qualified majority on a proposal from the Commission, may take appropriate steps with regard to any pre-accession assistance.
- (5) The EC-Turkey Association Council decided that the implementation of the Accession Partnership for Turkey will be monitored by the Association Agreement bodies as appropriate.

- (6) The Commission's 2002 regular report presented an objective analysis on Turkey's preparations for membership and identified a number of priority areas for further work.
- (7) In order to prepare for membership, Turkey should prepare a national programme for the adoption of the acquis. This programme should set out a timetable for achieving the priorities and intermediate objectives established in the Accession Partnership,

HAS DECIDED AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1

In accordance with Article 2 of Regulation (EC) No 390/2001, the principles, priorities, intermediate objectives and conditions in the Accession Partnership for Turkey are set out in the Annex hereto, which forms an integral part of this Decision.

Article 2

The implementation of the Accession Partnership shall be examined and monitored in the Association Agreement bodies and by the appropriate Council bodies on the basis of the Regular Report by the Commission to the Council. .

Article 3

This Decision shall take effect on the third day following that of its publication in the Official Journal of the European Union.

Done at Brussels,

For the Council
The President

ANNEX

TURKEY: 2003 ACCESSION PARTNERSHIP

1. INTRODUCTION

At its meeting in Luxembourg in December 1997, the European Council decided that the Accession Partnership would be the key feature of the enhanced pre-accession strategy, mobilising all forms of assistance to the candidate countries within a single framework. In this manner, the Community targets its assistance towards the specific needs of each candidate so as to provide support for overcoming particular problems with a view to accession.

The first Accession Partnership for Turkey was decided in March 2001. In the Commission's Strategy Paper on enlargement of 9 October 2002, it was stated that the Commission would propose a revised Accession Partnership for Turkey.

2. OBJECTIVES

The purpose of the Accession Partnership is to set out in a single framework the priority areas for further work identified in the Commission's 2002 Regular Report on the progress made by Turkey towards accession, the financial means available to help Turkey implement these priorities and the conditions which will apply to that assistance. The Accession Partnership provides the basis for a number of policy instruments which will be used to help the candidate States in their preparations for membership. It is expected that Turkey on the basis of this revised Accession Partnership adopts a revised national programme for the adoption of the acquis.

3. PRINCIPLES

The main priority areas identified for each candidate State relate to their ability to take on the obligations of meeting the Copenhagen criteria which state that membership requires:

- that the candidate State has achieved stability of institutions guaranteeing democracy, the rule of law, human rights and respect for and protection of minorities;
- the existence of a functioning market economy, as well as the capacity to cope with competitive pressure and market forces within the Union;
- the ability to take on the obligations of membership, including adherence to the aims of political, economic and monetary union.

At its meeting in Madrid in 1995, the European Council stressed the need for the candidate States to adjust their administrative structures to ensure harmonious operation of Community policies after accession and at Luxembourg, in 1997, it stressed that incorporation of the acquis into legislation is necessary, but not in itself sufficient; it is necessary to ensure that it is actually applied. The Feira and Gothenburg European Councils in 2000 and 2001 respectively confirmed the vital importance of the applicant countries' capacity to implement and enforce the acquis, and added that this required important efforts by the applicants in strengthening and reforming their administrative and judicial structures.

4. PRIORITIES

The Commission's regular reports have highlighted, besides the progress already made, the extent of the efforts which still have to be made in certain areas by the candidate States to prepare for accession. This situation requires the definition of intermediate stages in terms of priorities, each to be accompanied by precise objectives to be set in collaboration with the States concerned, the achievement of which will condition the degree of assistance granted and the progress of the negotiations under way with some countries and the opening of new negotiations with the others.

The priorities in the Accession Partnership are divided into two groups - short and medium term. Those under the short term have been selected on the basis that it is realistic to expect that Turkey can fulfil them in 2003/2004. The priorities listed under the medium term are expected to take more than one year to complete although work should be taken forward substantially in 2003/2004.

The Accession Partnership indicates the priority areas for Turkey's membership preparations. Turkey will nevertheless have to address all issues identified in the regular report. It is also important that Turkey fulfils the commitments of legislative approximation and implementation of the acquis in accordance with the commitments made under the Association Agreement, customs union and related decisions of the EC-Turkey Association Council for example on the trade regime for agricultural products. It should be recalled that incorporation of the acquis into legislation is not in itself sufficient; it will also be necessary to ensure that it is actually applied to the same standards as those which apply within the Union. In all of the areas listed below there is a need for credible and effective implementation and enforcement of the acquis.

Drawing on the analysis of the Commission's Regular Report, the following priorities have been identified for Turkey:

ENHANCED POLITICAL DIALOGUE AND POLITICAL CRITERIA

Priorities (2003/2004)

In accordance with the Helsinki Conclusions, in the context of the political dialogue, strongly support efforts to find a comprehensive settlement of the Cyprus problem through the continuation of the United Nations Secretary General's mission of good offices and of negotiations on the basis of his proposals.

In accordance with the Helsinki Conclusions, in the context of the political dialogue, under the principle of peaceful settlement of disputes in accordance with the UN Charter, make every effort to resolve any outstanding border disputes and other related issues, as referred to in point 4 of the Helsinki conclusions.

Ratify the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and its optional protocol and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights. Ratify Protocol N° 6 of the European Convention on Human Rights. Comply with the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, including the respect of the judgements of the European Court of Human Rights (section II of the Convention).

Implement measures to fight against torture and ill-treatment by law enforcement officials, in line with Article 3 of the European Convention on Human Rights and the Recommendations of the European Committee for the Prevention of Torture. Adopt further measures to ensure that prosecutors conduct timely and effective investigations of alleged cases and that courts impose adequate punishments on those convicted of abuses.

Guarantee in practice the right for detained and imprisoned persons to access in private to a lawyer and to have relatives notified, from the outset of their custody, in line with the European Convention on Human Rights.

Guarantee in law and in practice the full enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms by all individuals without discrimination and irrespective of language, race, colour, sex, political opinion, religion or belief in line with relevant international and European instruments to which Turkey is a party.

Pursue and implement reforms concerning freedom of expression including freedom of the press. Lift legal restrictions in line with the European Convention on Human Rights (Articles 10, 17 and 18). Remedy the situation of those persons prosecuted or sentenced for non-violent expression of opinion. Implement legal provisions on the right to re-trial following the relevant judgement of the European Court of Human Rights.

Pursue and implement reforms concerning freedom of association and peaceful assembly. Lift legal restrictions in line with the European Convention on Human Rights (Articles 11, 17 and 18), in particular on both foreign and national associations, including for trade unions,). Encourage the development of civil society.

Adapt and implement provisions concerning the exercise of freedom of thought, conscience and religion by all individuals and religious communities in line with Article 9 of the European Convention on Human Rights. Establish conditions for the functioning of these communities, in line with the practice of EU Member States. This includes legal and judicial protection of the communities, their members and their assets, teaching, appointing and training of clergy, and the enjoyment of property rights in line with Protocol No. 1 of the European Convention on Human Rights.

Ensure cultural diversity and guarantee cultural rights for all citizens irrespective of their origin. Ensure effective access to Radio/TV broadcasting and education in languages other than Turkish through implementation of existing measures and the removal of remaining restrictions that impede this access .

Adapt the functioning of the National Security Council in order to align civilian control of the military with practice in EU Member States.

Strengthen the independence and efficiency of the judiciary and promote consistent interpretation of legal provisions related to human rights and fundamental freedoms in line with the European Convention on Human Rights. Take measures with a view to ensuring that the obligation for all judicial authorities to take into account the case law of the European Court of Human Rights is respected. Align the functioning of State Security Courts with European standards. Prepare the establishment of intermediate courts of appeal.

Continue to bring conditions in prisons into line with standards in EU Member States.

Extend the training of law enforcement officials on human rights issues and modern investigation techniques, in particular as regards the fight against torture and ill-treatment, in order to prevent human rights violations Extend the training of judges and prosecutors on the application of the European Convention on Human Rights and the case law of the European Court of Human Rights.

Intensify efforts to develop a comprehensive approach to reduce regional disparities, and in particular to improve the situation in the south-east, with a view to enhancing economic, social and cultural opportunities for all citizens. In this context, the return of internally displaced persons to their original settlement should be supported and speeded up.

SHORT TERM

ECONOMIC CRITERIA

- Ensure the implementation of the current disinflation and structural reform programme agreed with the IMF and the World Bank, in particular, ensure the control of public expenditure.
- Continue the swift implementation of the financial sector reform, in particular the alignment of prudential and transparency regulations and their surveillance with international standards.
- Safeguard the independence of market regulatory authorities.
- Proceed with agricultural reforms.
- Accelerate the privatisation of state-owned entities, taking into account the social component.
- Continue with market liberalisation, in particular in the areas of tobacco and sugar.
- Facilitate and promote the inflow of foreign direct investments.
- Enhance the economic dialogue with the EU, in particular in the framework of the Pre-accession Fiscal Surveillance procedures, with emphasis on appropriate measures to achieve macroeconomic stability and predictability and on the implementation of structural reforms.
- Implement measures to address the problem of the informal economy.

ABILITY TO ASSUME THE OBLIGATIONS OF MEMBERSHIP

- Prepare a strategy for the introduction of the EC rural development policy and the forestry strategy.
- Adopt a veterinary framework law and acquis harmonised secondary legislation; strengthen the human, technical and information resources of the relevant administrative, scientific, testing and inspection bodies; ensure enforcement of legislation; step up animal disease eradication efforts, contingency planning and monitoring capacity.
- Identify sites for the development and operation of an EC-compatible system of Border Inspection Posts with third countries.
- Adopt a programme for transposition of the veterinary and phytosanitary acquis; strengthen the administrative, scientific and technical structures enabling the efficient and effective implementation of the acquis on plant protection, in particular laboratory testing; strengthen inspection arrangements both of the domestic production as imports of plants and plant products, as well as in food-processing establishments.

Fisheries

- Align fisheries management, control, marketing and structural adjustment legislation to the acquis.

Transport

- Adopt a programme for transposition and implementation of the transport acquis including air transport.
- Start aligning legislation on maritime safety as well as on road and rail transport; improve implementation and enforcement of, in particular, maritime safety and road transport standards.
- Adopt as soon as possible an action plan for maritime transport on monitoring classification societies and improving the performance of the Turkish flag register. Urgently improve the maritime safety record of Turkish fleet under the Paris Memorandum of Understanding by adopting and implementing all appropriate measures.
- Strengthen maritime administration, particularly that of flag state control.

- Adopt a programme for adaptation of the Turkish road transport fleet to EU standards.

Taxation

- Continue alignment of excise duties and VAT, in particular in respect of applied rates, scope of exempt transactions, and tax structure and eliminate tax measures which may result in discriminatory treatments; ensure that future legislation complies with the principles of the Code of Conduct for Business Taxation.
- Modernise and strengthen the Tax Administration with a view to increasing taxpayer's compliance and to improving the collection of tax revenues.

Statistics

- Ratify a new statistical law in line with EU standards.
- Adopt the pending basic Classifications (e.g. NACE, CPA, PRODCOM etc.) by SIS and by all public institutions of the Turkish statistical system.
- Fully adopt the relevant Statistical Units (e.g. KAU, LKAU, etc.).
- Revise the National Accounts methodology for the implementation of ESA 95.
- Reinforce the strategy for the development of statistics in particular in the following areas: demographic and Labour Force Survey statistics, regional statistics, business statistics (including Business Register) and agriculture statistics.
- Ensure adequate training of staff and improve the administrative capacity.

Social Policy and Employment

- Adopt a transposition programme of the acquis in the areas of labour law, equal treatment for women and men, health and safety at work, the fight against discrimination, and public health.
- Develop a yearly plan for financing investment, based on a realistic assessment of costs of alignment and of available public and private resources.
- Put in place conditions for an active and autonomous bipartite as well as tripartite social dialogue, inter alia by abolishing restrictive provisions on trade union activities and ensuring that trade union rights are respected.
- Support social partners' capacity building efforts, in particular with a view to their future role in the elaboration and implementation of employment and social policy notably through autonomous social dialogue.
- Continue efforts to tackle the problem of child labour.
- Review the capacity of all institutions involved in the transposition of the acquis in the field.

Energy

- Establish a programme for the adoption of the energy acquis, particularly that concerning issues other than the internal energy market.
- Ensure independence and effective functioning of the regulatory authority for the electricity and gas sectors; grant the authority the means to carry out its tasks effectively.
- Ensure the establishment of a competitive internal energy market, in compliance with the electricity and gas directives.
- Ensure further alignment with the energy efficiency acquis and enhance the implementation of energy conservation practices.
- Design and start to implement a programme to reduce the energy intensity of the Turkish economy and to increase the use of renewable energy sources.

Industrial policy

- Develop and implement a strategy for the promotion of foreign investment into Turkey.

Small and medium enterprises

- Develop and implement a national SME strategy in line with the European Charter for Small Enterprises and the Multiannual Programme for Enterprise and Entrepreneurship. This should include the improvement of the business environment for SMEs, particularly where access to finance is concerned.
- Align the SME definition with the EU definition.

Education, Training and Youth

- Take appropriate measures to set up a body able to perform the duties of a National Agency as well as all necessary mechanisms for the implementation and sound financial management of the Socrates, Leonardo da Vinci and Youth Programmes.

Telecommunications and information technology

- Adopt regulations in the areas of leased lines, data protection in electronic communications, interconnection and universal service, carrier selection and number portability.
- Ensure effective implementation of tariffing and licensing legislation.
- Prepare a schedule for the transposition of the new acquis 2002.
- Strengthen the capacity building and the enforcement powers of the regulatory authority.
- Start alignment with the acquis on postal services.

Culture and Audio-Visual policy

- Start alignment of legislation in the field of audio-visual policy, in particular with regard to the television-without-frontier Directive and ensure effective, predictable, and transparent implementation of the new regulatory framework.

Regional policy and co-ordination of structural instruments

- Start to develop a national policy for economic and social cohesion aimed at reducing regional disparities through a National Development Plan, and the establishment of regional development plans at NUTS 2 level.
- Adopt a legislative framework that would facilitate the implementation of the acquis under this chapter.
- Establish pluri-annual budgeting procedures setting out priority criteria for public investment in the regions.
- Strengthen the administrative structures for managing regional development.

5. PROGRAMMING

Financial assistance for the priorities identified in the Accession Partnership will be made available through annual financing decisions taken by the Commission, following the procedure set out in article 8 of Council Regulation 2500/2001 on pre-accession financial assistance for Turkey. The financing decisions will be followed by a Financing Memorandum signed with Turkey.

During the period 2003-2006 pre-accession financial assistance will focus on two main priorities, institution building and investment. Institution building is the process of helping candidate countries to develop the structures, strategies, human resources and management skills needed to strengthen their economic, social, regulatory and administrative capacity. Pre-accession assistance will contribute to the financing of institution building in all sectors. Around 30% of the available resources will be allocated for this purpose and are mainly deployed and implemented with member states through the instrument of “twinning”.

The second priority, “investment” will take two forms:

- investment to establish or to strengthen the regulatory infrastructure needed (implementation bodies; enforcement and inspection capabilities) to ensure compliance with the acquis and direct, acquis-related investments;
- investment in economic and social cohesion, taking into account the importance of regional disparities between Turkish regions as well as the gap between Turkey’s national income and the EU average. This will promote the functioning of the market economy and the capacity to cope with competitive pressure and market forces within the EU.

Around 70% of resources will be allocated for investment. Cross border co-operation, especially at the present external frontiers of the EU and also between adjacent candidate countries, is important in contributing to economic development in the border regions of these countries. As part of investment in economic and social cohesion, efforts will be made to promote participation by Turkey in cross border activities and to ensure consistency with the INTERREG approach on Turkey’s borders with the EU.

Since 2000, the Commission has provided annual average assistance to Turkey of €177m. The conclusions of the Copenhagen European Council recommended that this amount be substantially increased from 2004. The Commission’s Strategy Paper “Towards an Enlarged Union” envisaged at least doubling this level of assistance by 2006.

5.1. Role of international financial institutions

Turkey is a major beneficiary of assistance from the European Investment Bank (EIB). The country may benefit from up to five different mandates and facilities: the EuroMed II Lending Mandate for Mediterranean countries, the Mediterranean Partnership Facility, the Special Action Mandate for Turkey, the Turkey Earthquake Reconstruction and Rehabilitation Assistance Facility and the Pre-Accession Facility. In total Turkey received loan financing worth €445 million from 1992 to 1999. This has increased dramatically and over the period 2000-2002 EIB lending for projects in Turkey totalled €1500 million.

The Commission and the Turkish authorities have also sought a high degree of complementarity between the pre-accession financial assistance programme and the on-going reform programmes supported by the international financial institutions, particularly the World Bank, in such areas as education, regulatory reform and public procurement.

6. CONDITIONALITY

Community assistance for financing projects through the pre-accession instruments is conditional on the respect by Turkey of its commitments under the EC-Turkey Agreements, including the Customs Union Decision 1/95 and other decisions, further steps towards satisfying effectively the Copenhagen criteria and in particular progress in meeting the specific priorities of this revised Accession Partnership. Failure to respect these general conditions could lead to a decision by the Council on the suspension of financial assistance on the basis of Article 5 of Regulation 2500/2001. Specific conditions are also included in individual annual programmes.

7. MONITORING

The implementation of the Accession Partnership is monitored in the framework of the Association Agreement. The Association Agreement sub-committees provide the possibility to review implementation of the Accession Partnership priorities as well as progress as regards legal approximation, implementation and enforcement. The Association Committee discusses overall developments, progress and problems in meeting the Accession Partnership's priorities as well as more specific issues referred to it from the sub-committees.

The monitoring of the pre-accession financial assistance programme shall be carried out jointly by Turkey and the European Commission through a Joint Monitoring Committee. In order to ensure the effectiveness of monitoring, projects being funded under each Financing Memorandum must incorporate verifiable and measurable indicators of achievements. Monitoring based on these indicators will assist the Commission, the PHARE Management Committee and Turkey in subsequently reorienting programmes where necessary and in the design of new programmes.

The PHARE Management Committee ensures that actions financed under the pre-accession programme are compatible with each other as well as with the Accession Partnership as laid down in Council Regulation (EC) No 2500/2001, OJ L 342, 27.12.2001, p. 1).

The Accession Partnership will continue to be amended as necessary in accordance with Article 2 of Regulation (EC) No 622/98.
